

Mr. Adetoye Abioye is with Theseabilities Foundation a non-governmental organisation that advocates rights of persons with disabilities, encouraging their social and economic inclusion in society. He combines business principles with strategic planning and execution in problem-solving.

Adetoye is a consulting management executive experienced in client relationship management, leadership training & coaching, business facilitation, enterprise development, consultative selling, and forging strategic partnerships.

Through Theseabilities Foundation, he has designed and successfully implemented entrepreneurial development programmes in partnership with private sector companies that have enhanced the dignities and socio-economic inclusion of more than 500 persons with disabilities across Nigeria.

Theseabilities Foundation continues to facilitate inclusion of persons with disabilities through education, employment and training opportunities in private and public sector organisations in Nigeria.

Adetoye has excellent critical thinking and communication skills that bring clarity to strategy and disciplined execution. He has facilitated several strategy sessions, team building and leadership development workshops for blue-chip companies in and outside Nigeria.

He is a certified executive coach and accredited facilitator of people-development programmes.

- Adetoye@theseabilitiesfoundation.org; tfortoye@gmail.com