

Manobina Chakraborty is an inclusive education expert based in India. She is also the founder of i for inclusion, a global support service for neurodivergent children and young people and their families. Apart of being an award-winning Inclusive Education Consultant (K-12), Manobina is also a certified Special Educational Needs expert and a Counsellor with nearly two decades of experience in India as well as in the UK. Manobina is now associated with reputed educational organizations both in India and the UK and has been instrumental in setting up special / integrated / inclusive schools. Her area of specialization is autism spectrum disorder, and she is certified to support children and young people with dyslexia. She has huge experience in teaching and providing therapeutic interventions to children and young people with Specific Learning Difficulties (SpLD).

Manobina is an experienced and certified learning leader and is at present working on accessibility, representation and inclusion of disability in the digital media. She was a recipient of Dr APJ Abdul Kalam Award in the year 2016 for her contribution to education in the state of Gujarat in India.